| Ear still pierced. Still a total cool dude. | | I lovely my lovely friends | My actual birthday! | Soft play day. It cannot be as bad as last week. | |
| Work Birthday | | I love sausage sandwiches | I love birthdays | Ahhh there are our lovely friends. | |
| Ruddy hell, forgot to buy cakes for work birthday | | I am so tired. | Look at mall of my lovely cards and flowers | I would die without coffee. | |
| Ooohhhhh presents | | It is unfair that I did not drink any lovely drinks let night and yet I am still tired | I don't even mind that HH told me he got a discount on my flowers, because these are the things that make me love him. | Lovely babies doing lots of lovely playing | |
| I cant believe they bought me that bangle I have been harping on about for ages. | | Probably because I sat up late chatting to my lovely friend about all of the things | Sort of. | Music and dancing time. Babies not keen on listening to lady today. Will pretend I do not know them. | |
| Oh my goodness. I bet I have been harping on about it so much they think I was hinting. | | It was like a sleepover. I miss sleepovers | Actually I would be quite happy not to know anything about any discount on birthday flowers. | Think will have more coffee. | |
| Maybe I was hinting? | | I wish I was still 15. | They are beautiful though. | I spend an actual fortune here | |
| I am too socially awkward for birthdays. Or for life. | | No I do not. | Oooooohhhh Cake. Thank you lovely Mother in law | I night buy a soft play. They must make millions of pounds of lovely money in coffee alone. | |
| Love my lovely shiny bangle. | | Oh must drop littlest little sister to see her boyfriend. Where they will be in the house alone. | When the babies sing me happy birthday it makes my heart explode. | The babies would love it. | |

| Think I will pop into town after work. I need something to wear to go out for dinner in tomorrow eve. When I will not be drinking. Actually doesn't matter what I wear as will too jealous of all of the lovely wine to care. |
| I will pick up a top or something though. |
| And maybe a lipstick. |
| I love my new lipstick. Everything in my life is going to be loads better now that I have my new |
| Babies home from nursery. Chaos chaos chaos. Ruddy hell. |
| Littlest little sister still snapchatting all things. |
| I wish I had littlest little sisters snapchatting skills. |
| I wish I had something interesting to snapchat |
| Though I am fairly sure she just snapchatted the sofa. |
| Eat some food. |
